

TOP TEN FOR WOMEN

1

The Camisole

Camis are key to pulling together a office-ready look. They are a great foundation piece. Wear it under a sheer blouse or suit jacket. Choose neutral colors such as white, black, chocolate or cream, it is always a perfect piece to polish off your look. Our camisole is from Target for $9.00.

2

The Button-Down Dress Shirt

Don't misjudge the button-down. It can be classic, preppy, professional, demure, sexy, up-town or down-town. This may be the most versatile piece in your closet. Period. Look for non-boxy shapes that contour your body and don't pull at the chest. Stretch fabrics also help with fit. Our dress shirt is from 9tailors for $79.00.

3

The Blouse

Opt for a silky blouse to create a sassy silhouette. Pair it with delicate heels for a super-chic look, or sleek skirt to maximize your womanly curves. Blouses can be voluminous or slim. For most women, it's best to keep it simple and delicate. Our blouse is from Old Navy for $8.00.

4

The Tee

The perfect cotton tee is the go-to item in your closet (especially when everything else is at the dry-cleaners). Go with a classic white or a bold color. Tees with nice details or embellishments can dress up the Tee so that you can go easily from work to cocktail hour. Our tee is from J.Crew for $26.50

5

The Ballet Flat

Comfort and style are never usually uttered in the same sentence. But, thank the ladies in the tutus for giving us a functional, yet pretty addition to our wardrobe. Wear flats with slim or skinny pants and give your feet a break! Our ballet flat is from Target for $13.00.

6

The Cardigan

We don't always have control over the office thermostat. So, the cardigan is the perfect layering piece. Wear this over a dress, skirt or pair of pants. We guarantee that it will be the MVP in your closet. Choose hues in neutral or bright colors. This is one piece that will surely have you wanting more. Our cardigan is from H&M for $28.00.

9

The Pencil Skirt

A pencil skirt never goes out of style! Wear it with the flowy blouse or the camisole under a cardigan or suit jacket. It's also the ideal silhouette for most body types. Wear it for work and every day to pull your look together in no time flat. Our skirt is from Shopruche.com for $30.00.

7

THE LBD (little black dress)

The LBD is not only beautiful, but also functional. It can go from day to night depending on the accessories you wear with it! A black wrap dress is a flattering cut for many body types. Subtle textures and ruching are also excellent ways to look stylish while camouflaging lumps and bumps. Try a pair of siren red patent pumps to add allure to basic black, or layer chains, baubles or pearls aplenty around a décolletage-baring neckline to transform your look from conventional class to modern sass. Our LBD is from net-a-porter.com for $90.00.

The Power Suit

A fitted jacket with straight or boot cut pants and skirt is the key piece to every woman's working wardrobe. Mix and match the pieces together or apart to maximize your "ROI." Choose a high-quality, lightweight wool or techno-fiber in a contemporary cut. A blouse, tailored silk or cotton-sateen tops can enliven this office look and add a modern twist to the standard suit. Take off your jacket, slip on some heels, and change your day bag to a clutch for a killer night-out look that still conveys power and style. Our suit is from my-wardrobe.com for $267.00.

The LBH (little black heel)

Pointed or rounded toe pumps can help you step out in style. Heels can not only elevate the look of your outfit (from casual chic to formal fancy), but also elevate your body...literally (everyone needs a little help with height)! Start off with a basic black in a soft, supple leather and a kitten heel. Then, play around with color, texture, height, etc. Our LBH is from Nordstrom for $79.00.
